Redesign the misleading colored chart

H-Mohammed Nawaz - (192325060), R.No = 17

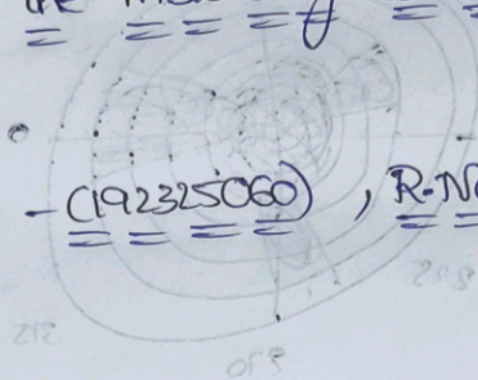

Chart-1:-

1) What is this chart trying to show?

A) * It shows that the no. of survey responses between four experience levels, [Beginner, Intermediate, Advanced, Expert]

* It is a bar graph.

2) What's wrong with the color choice?

A) The colors are too different and bright, Instead keep different colors they are same and They do not show any meaningful colors.

3) Propose a better color scheme?

A) By using a single colour with different shades (as) from light to dark, (as) giving text headers in the bar.

1) What is the chart trying to show?

A) It shows the Air quality Index by each month from [January to October].

2) What's wrong with the colour choice?

A) There are same colour in different months and the chart uses many unrelated bright colour making difficult to compare the months.

3) Propose better colour scheme?

A) Use traffic colour, such as green for good air quality, yellow for moderate, orange for unhealthy and red for very unhealthy. By this we get more ~~easy~~ confidence to differentiate.
